Urgent Notice

(for all students)

We are deeply sorry for the unwanted incident that took place yesterday at the BUBT Sports Complex during the final matches of the Vice Chancellor's Football Tournament.

In this regard, an investigation committee has already been formed, and they are actively working on the matter. The committee will submit its report within three (03) working days, and after obtaining the report, actions will be taken accordingly.

All students are hereby requested to remain patient and continue their academic activities regularly.
