Notice (for the students of English Department)

This is for the information of all concerned that, considering the recent disruption in the Department of English of BUBT, the BUBT administration has constituted an investigation committee to find out the causes of the unrest among the students and faculty members, and identify the individuals who are involved in those unexpected activities.

In this regard, the committee will submit the investigation report to the Office of the Registrar by March 20, 2025.

However, all the students are advised to attend the class regularly and prepare for the Midterm Examination, which will start on March 10, 2025.
