Closure of the University on Account of National Mourning

This is to inform all faculty members, officers, staff, and students of Bangladesh University of Business and Technology (BUBT) that Begum Khaleda Zia, former Prime Minister of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, passed away today.

In line with the instructions issued by the Public Administration, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the University will remain closed tomorrow as a mark of respect and mourning.

Therefore, all academic and administrative activities of the University shall remain suspended for the day.

The university expresses its profound sorrow at this loss and conveys heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family. May Allah grant her eternal peace.
