Important Notice Regarding Resumption of Semester Fee Payment through Rocket Mobile Banking and Advisory to Students

This is for the information of all students that, following the temporary suspension of fee collection through Rocket Mobile Banking due to an ongoing investigation into certain alleged fraudulent activities, the University Authority has decided to resume semester fee payments through the Rocket payment channel with immediate effect.

Accordingly, all students may now make their semester fee and other approved payments through the University's designated Rocket payment system.

Students are hereby advised to exercise utmost caution while making payments and are requested to strictly follow the instructions below:

1. The University never requests OTP, PIN, password, reset code or any other confidential banking information over telephone calls, SMS, WhatsApp or any other electronic means.
2. Students are strongly advised not to disclose any OTP, PIN, password or other confidential information to any person under any circumstances, even if the caller claims to represent the University.
3. For any query relating to tuition fees, semester fees, payment confirmation, refunds or other accounts-related matters, students are requested to communicate only through the following official Accounts Department mobile numbers:
☎ 01707078195
☎ 01793759802
4. Any phone call, SMS, WhatsApp message or communication received from any other number claiming to be from the University regarding payment matters should be treated as suspicious.
5. Students are requested to immediately report any suspicious communication or attempted fraud to the Accounts Department and the University Administration.
6. Students are encouraged to retain payment receipts, transaction IDs and relevant screenshots until the payment has been properly reflected in their student accounts.

The University Authority remains committed to ensuring the security of students' financial information and is continuing its efforts to strengthen payment security measures.

All students are requested to remain vigilant and cooperate with the University in preventing fraudulent activities.
