Revised Notice Regarding the Holidays of Eid-ul-Fitr (for the students, faculty members, officers and staff of BUBT)

In accordance with the decision taken at an emergency meeting held today among the high officials, deans and chairmen of BUBT, this is to inform all the concerned that the previously circulated notices regarding the holidays of Eid-ul-Fitr and Independence Day are hereby cancelled.

In this regard, the revised holiday schedule for Eid-ul-Fitr and Independence Day of Bangladesh will remain effective from today, March 09, 2026, till March 26, 2026, and classes and administrative activities of the university will resume on March 27, 2026. This revision of holidays has been taken considering the directives issued from the Ministry of Education and UGC, and the need to facilitate transportation arrangements for everyone returning after the holidays.

However, to meet the academic and administrative requirements of the university, the following directives will be followed:

1. The classes scheduled from March 9 to March 12, 2026 (as per the Academic Calendar) will be conducted as make-up classes after the Eid-ul-Fitr holidays. The respective Deans and Chairmen will decide the mode of these classes (online/offline);
2. All Heads of Offices/Units, Deans, and Chairmen of the Departments will perform their duties from March 09 to March 12, 2026, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., along with one (01) assistant (Officer/Office Assistant/SSS);
3. All supplementary examinations will start from March 30, 2026, and the Controller of Examinations will issue a separate notice regarding the revised examination schedule;
4. To meet emergency needs, the services of the Office of the Finance and Accounts, Admission Unit, IT Unit, Engineering Unit, Security Unit will remain open in a limited scale during the holidays.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
